Description

The homes are all finished to an exceptional standard with the highest fixtures and fittings including air source heat pumps, Bosch appliances, Duravit sanitaryware and flooring throughout.

Location

Guilden Morden is an attractive village in south-west Cambridgeshire. Local facilities include a primary school, public house, village hall, a recreation ground and a nearby farm shop. Secondary school education is available at nearby Bassingbourn Village College and there are a number of excellent schools and sixth form colleges in Cambridge. More comprehensive facilities are available at Royston, approximately 9 miles to the south-east or Biggleswade approximately 7 miles away with major supermarkets and a retail park.

The village is also conveniently placed for commuters by road or rail with the A1(M) about 6 miles to the west, the A10 about 5 miles to the east and Ashwell and Morden Railway Station about 4 miles to the south, providing services to London's King's Cross in approximately 38 minutes.
